TWISTED TALES (PAPERBACK)

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.This is a collection of 18 short stories. Or, more correctly, it could be called a Baker s Eighteen , as there is an extra story, 6.10 from Darlington . This story is available free as an E-story on the webpage However, to those without e-readers, and who only read real books, it is included here so that they are not discriminated against. I had originally intended that this book would be called Bagatelle , and it was advertised as such. But on its completion, I decided to change the title to Twisted Tales , as I thought it a better, and more accurate, description. Like Andalucian Mysteries and More Andalucian Mysteries , several of the stories in this book (6 in total) are set in and around the Axarquia, a region of southern Spain. The remaining ones are placed in a variety of locations, nine in the UK, one a spoof on the Sherlock Holmes stories, but set in Madrid, and two in the Middle East. Several of the stories contain events either witnessed or related to me, but using fictionalised settings and characters. None of the people in the stories are based on any person, alive or dead, but are all, as are the plots, figments of my imagination. All bar one. Little Billie is the exception to this, and is dedicated to William Pearson, the real Little Billie . He was a teacher at Sir William Turner s Grammar School, Coatham, Redcar, and taught me maths and physics. He was known to all the boys by his nickname, and relished it himself. The events in Smiths bookshop in Redcar High Street are almost verbatim of...
