Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Attractive Menus This book has been written because we are aware of the perplexities which face the woman of today, (particularly in places where the services of a caterer cannot be obtained), when she undertakes to entertain her friends at breakfast, luncheons and dinners, and desires to serve something out of the ordinary; even what she may glean from magazines is perhaps copied by her neighbors, and every up-to-date woman wants something different. That the hostess herself must probably prepare the meal without the help of a maid has also been considered, and the I recipes we have chosen are designed to make its preparation as easy as possible. Many of them can be prepared the day before. A hostess is judged to a certain extent by the kind of food she provides. Certain things are good at certain times with some combinations, and very much out of place with others. The Table. Have your dining room table tastefully arranged with snow white linen, proper napkins for each meal (many people are now using luncheon or breakfast sets, which are perfectly proper) but pure white linen is always good taste. Flowers are very effective, but, if used, choose the colors carried out in your menu. We will be glad to design special centerpieces for you for any special function at a very small cost. To set the table properly, first lay the silence pad, then the table cloth perfectly even. Small tables may be used for large gatherings if desired. On the right of plate place knives in order to be used, edges turned toward the plate, the soup spoon and teaspoons at right of...
